The Mildly Amazing Man-Tree

Arbor day special

A person with a green headband, wearing a white t-shirt with black suspenders and green pants, sits on a wooden bench in a park. A speech bubble originates from the person. The background features large green trees and a path. The style is a colorful, expressive drawing.

There is a common misconception
that the most important holiday
is Christmas, or Hanukkah,
Halloween, or maybe even Thanksgiving. This is quite obviously wrong, the most important and well-respected holiday is Arbor Day!

Look!

Hey kids did you know today is Arbor day?

No one cares about Arbor Day, it's totally LAME!

Yeah it's not like we need trees to breathe or anything

Really!?

Ha Ha! LOSER

Swoosh

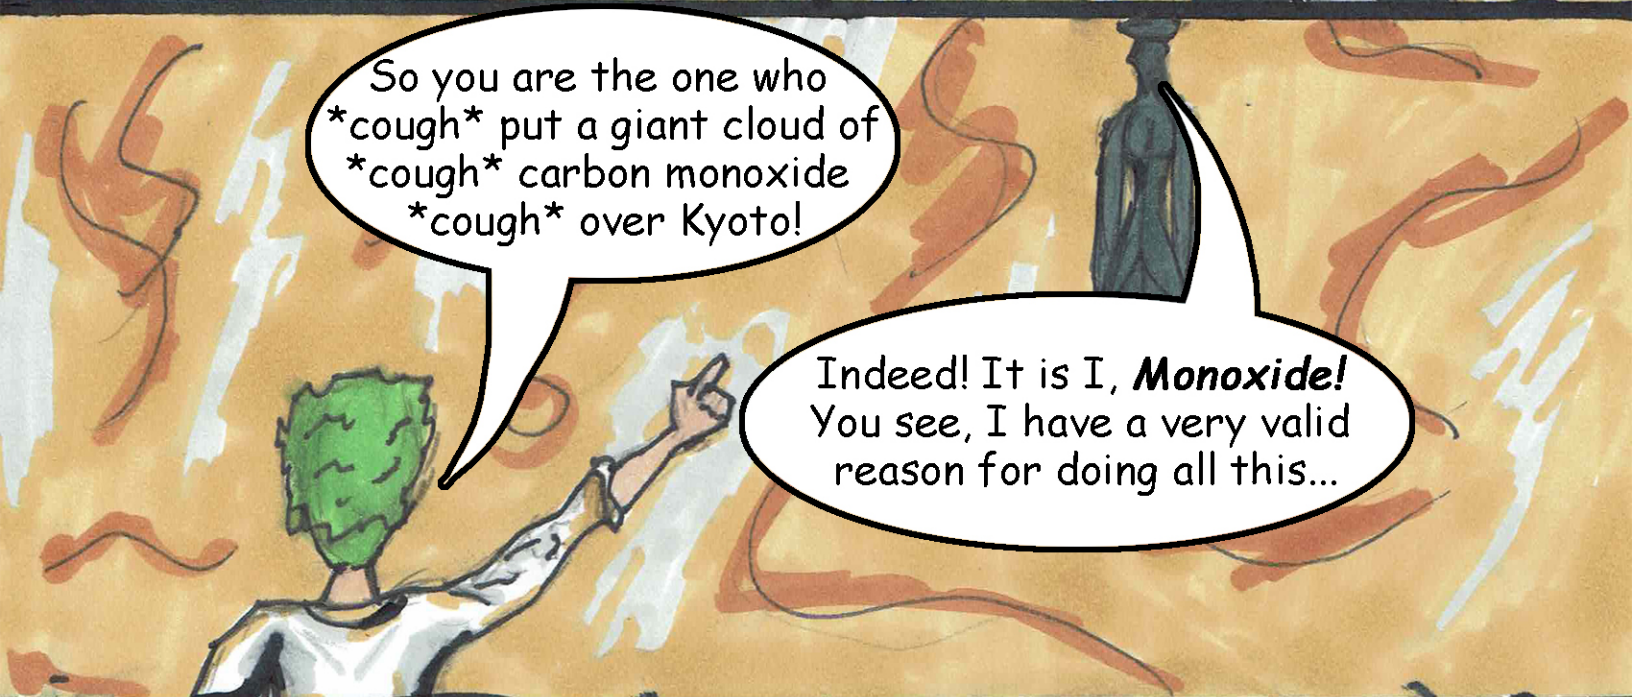

No! My Flyers!

Ha Ha Ha! My plan has worked!

So you are the one who cough put a giant cloud of cough carbon monoxide
cough over Kyoto!

Indeed! It is I, Monoxide!
You see, I have a very valid reason for doing all this...

Ever since I was a little kid I wanted to be a plant
Biologist and stop global warming.

I was remarkably knowledgeable when it came to plants,, however whenever
I would touch them they would wither and die.

You can imagine this was not very convenient.

I tried to then grow a garden to grow my favorite food: spaget. you may ask why I didn't just buy the ingredients, but I wanted it to be organic.

Unfortunately, the spaget plant didn't grow. so I decided: if I can't eat organic, NO ONE CAN!

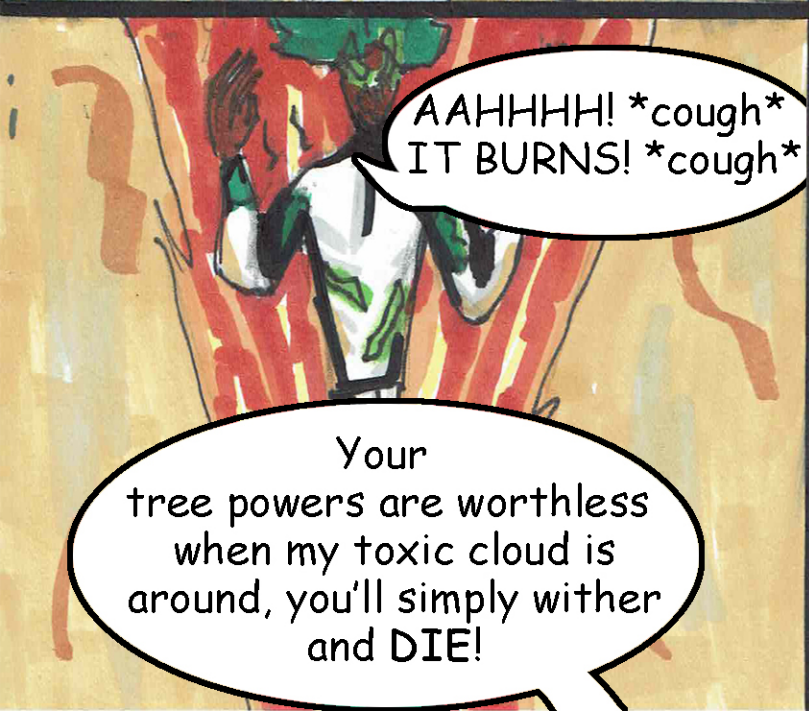

Hold up- so you created a giant cloud of deadly gas over a highly populated city just because to couldn't make spaghetti out of a plant? News flash LADY: spaghetti doesn't grow on plants!

That doesn't matter, I have already invested all of my time and effort into this so there's no going back!

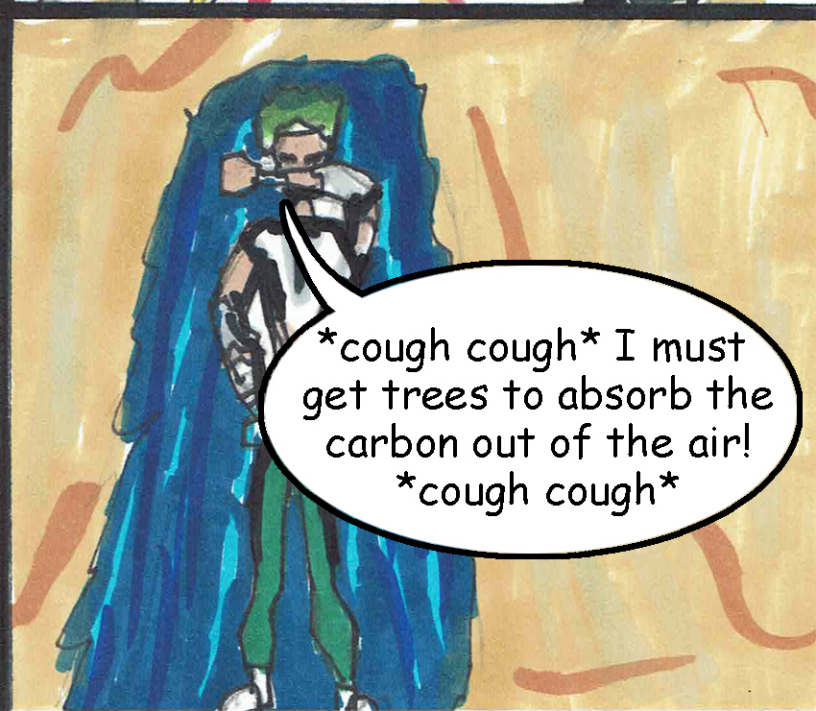

VS

You are overreacting to this, but if it's a fight you want it's a fight you'll get!

AAHHHH! cough IT BURNS! cough

Your tree powers are worthless when my toxic cloud is around, you'll simply wither and DIE!

cough cough I must get trees to absorb the carbon out of the air! cough cough

HOME DEPOT Japan

I NEED ALL OF YOUR TREES

Will you pay for them?

maybe

He's never gonna pay for those is he

Hello innocent civilians I need your help planting trees

Trees are LAME
Why would anyone want to plant them

Man it is smoggy out today! cough

That's global warming for ya.

Anyone else who won't comply will suffer the same fate!

CRACK!

PLANT FASTER!

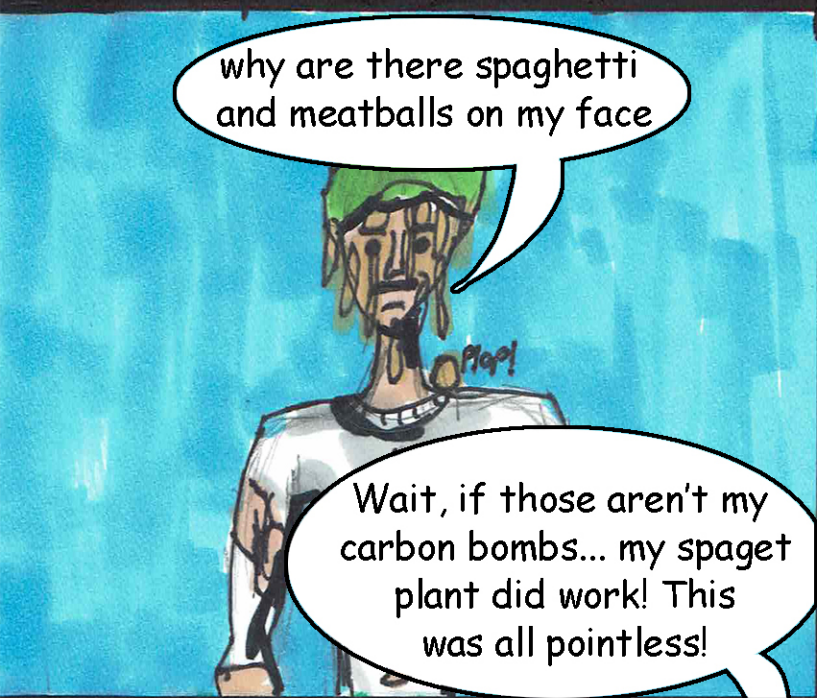

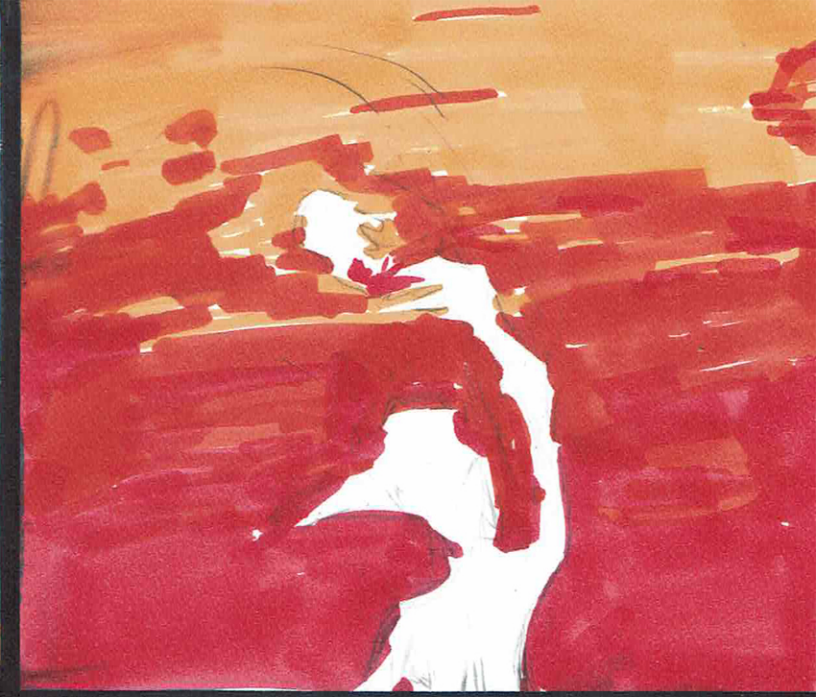

It worked!

Look how fast they're growing!

You may have foiled my plans, TREE, but I have one more trick up my sleeve...

why are there spaghetti and meatballs on my face

Wait, if those aren't my carbon bombs... my spaget plant did work! This was all pointless!

Should have thought about that before you created a gas cloud over Kyoto.

That's what they all say...

Wait no I don't want to be a villain I just want my spaget!

I would have gotten away with it had it not been for your darn tree...

What do we do now?

Not my problem!

THE END

Talk Box

Hello Dear Readers!

Well, this book was pretty pants. So sorry about the quality on the drawings, for example:

1. Proportions (on the humans)
2. Faces (Absolutely no consistency with those)
3. Colors (didn't have time to enhance due to time crunch :()
4. Anything else that isn't up to par.

If this is your first Slapdash book, you probably have the wrong impression of us! Go read CK 2, arguably our best book. CK 3 is in the works, and will hopefully be done in at least 2 months, so you might not have anything to read for a while... SIKE! Our new short-story is being worked on vigilantly by the artist, and soon we will be able to present:

PILLOW DUDE!

Yep! Name. Is. Announced! You will soon be able to read the amazing tale of Pillow Dude, and have wonderful art to accompany it! We will have that hopefully before CK 3.

No promises, however as everyone is busy and has things to do other than draw comics and write disembodied text for all (probably) 3 of our readers. Anyways, That's all from me, but in the meanwhile, subscribe to YouTube and follow on Tik Tok.

All of these links can be found on the website.

Bye!
